*Attorney for Defendant
Alvogen Pine Brook LLC*

Plaintiffs Indivior Inc., Indivior UK Limited (together, “Indivior”), and Aquestive Therapeutics, Inc. (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), by and through their undersigned counsel, submit this Application for a Temporary Restraining Order and for issuance of an Order to Show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not Issue. Specifically, Plaintiffs move for entry of a temporary restraining order that will restrain and enjoin Defendant Alvogen Pine Brook LLC (“Alvogen”) from engaging in the commercial manufacture, use, offer to sell, or sale within the United States of, or importing into the United States, its generic buprenorphine-and-naloxone-containing transmucosal film products, through and including the return date of the Order to Show Cause, and requiring Alvogen to show cause why it should not be preliminarily enjoined from doing so throughout the pendency of this action or until the expiration of U.S. Patent No. 9,931,305.

This application for an Order to Show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction with Temporary Restraints Should Not Issue is made pursuant to Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on the grounds that there is a likelihood that Plaintiffs will succeed on the merits and that Plaintiffs will be irreparably harmed if the relief is not granted.

The Application is based on this notice, the accompanying Memorandum in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction and the Declarations of Robert S. Langer, Sc.D., Richard Simkin, Mark Crossley, Robert Navarro, Pharm.D., Gerald G. Fuller, Ph.D., and Keith Kendall, submitted herewith. Also submitted are a [Proposed] Order to Show Cause with Temporary Restraints and a [Proposed] Order Granting Preliminary Injunction.

Dated: January 22, 2019

Respectfully submitted,
